

Norfolk Disabled Parents Alliance

- is run by and for disabled parents in Norfolk

We work for ● choice and equality for all disabled parents and their families

- good support for disabled parents and their families, when needed

We include ● all parents with physical, sensory, learning or cognitive difficulties, mental health issues, and long term conditions

- their partners, children and family

- those who work with disabled parents

- all other supporters

We provide ● information

- a way to have a say about services

- a network of disabled parents and supporters

- members newsletter and e-news

- training for supporters

